

Louise Mallett

Louise Mallett has worked in Human Resources for 18+ years in a variety of capacities and in various business environments. Louise has recently moved to the Saskatchewan Cancer Agency as the Organizational Change and Development Lead with a focus on building a change management practice and developing change leadership in the organization. Previously, Louise worked at SaskPower for 10 years in the roles of Organizational Development Consultant, Human Resource Business Partner and Organizational Change Management Specialist in Human Resources and in Information Technology & Security. Louise's career has focused on building and leading change management and organizational effectiveness as well as individual and team coaching, career management, leadership development, team effectiveness and group facilitation.

Louise achieved her Certified Executive Coach (CEC) through Royal Roads University in 2010. She has been a member of the International Coach Federation (ICF) and obtained the Associate Certified Coach (ACC) designation in 2014 and is currently pursuing her Professional Certified Coach (PCC). Louise's educational background is in Business Administration and Adult Training and Development. Louise is a Chartered Professional in Human Resources (CPHR) and is a Prosci certified Change Management practitioner and has certifications in a variety of assessment tools.

Louise's coaching style is listening with curiosity to empower individuals to see their strengths leverage those strengths to reach their full potential.